

“Stake Your Claim on Your IT Future”

In leading up to the 14th Annual National Collegiate Conference, AITP is proud to announce the “Stake Your Claim on Your IT Future” 2009 Spring Student Membership Promotion.

2009 Spring Promotion

Any student may join AITP, or an existing student member may renew, at the reduced rate of $25 until March 31, 2009. We hope this promotion will help your chapter in its recruitment efforts to grow membership.

We highly encourage you and your chapter to take advantage of this nearly 30% savings on the regular dues rate.

To help your chapter promote this special offer, we have created some promotional materials and made them available on the AITP portal for your use:

Membership Promotion Poster:

All of these and more are available

<http://www.aitp.org/organization/profile/promotion/promotion.jsp>.

Feel free to share these with students and faculty at colleges and universities who do not have an AITP Student Chapter. They might want to join us!!!

Start building your chapter membership, and remember to encourage those new members, as well as your current members to attend the 2009 AITP Annual National Collegiate Conference!
